Pursuant to the adjournment of January 24, 2005, Court reconvenes at 11:15 a.m. in the Plaza Ballroom. The People, represent by Lisa Gamoian, Chief Deputy District Attorney, and the defendant Marcus Delon Wesson, with his counsel, Peter Jones, Chief Deputy Public Defender and Rafael Torres, Deputy Public Defender are present. All parties state they are ready to proceed.

The Court welcomes the prospective jurors and gives them the Schedule of Calendar Court Dates and Juror Questionnaire Information (marked as Court exhibit 5).

The Court explains to the prospective jurors the process of jury selection.

The prospective jurors are sworn by the Judicial Assistant, Barbara Graves, to answer accurately and truthfully, under penalty of perjury, all questions propounded to you concerning your qualifications and competency to serve as a trial juror in the matter now pending before this Court, and failure to do so may subject you to prosecution. A verbal response was given by the jury panel.

The Court admonishes the prospective jury as follows: You are ordered that you are not to converse among yourselves or with anyone else on any subject connected with this trial or to form or express any opinion about this case until the cause is finally submitted to you or you are discharged or released as a juror.

The Court reads the Neutral Statement of Facts to the prospective jury (marked as Court exhibit 8).

The Court gives to the prospective jurors the Definition of Undue Hardship (marked as Court exhibit 6 page 2). The Court instructs the prospective jurors who meet the criteria for undue hardship, to fill out the Request for Undue Hardship. All other prospective jurors are to fill out the General Questionnaire. The Court orders all prospective jurors to return on the date that the Jury Commissioner assigns them to return to court.

The Court admonishes the prospective jury as follows: You are ordered that you are not to converse among yourselves or with anyone else on any subject connected with this trial or to form or express any opinion about this case until the cause is finally submitted to you or you are discharged or released as a juror.

The Court adjourns with the prospective jurors.
